§ 305(a)(3) — (3) Following the presentation of opening statements on the concurrent resolution on the budget for a fiscal year by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Budget of the House, there shall be a period of up to four hours for debate on economic goals and priorities.

§ 305(a)(4) (4) Only if a concurrent resolution on the budget reported by the Committee on the budget of the House sets forth the economic goals (as described in sections 3(a)(2)<sup>340</sup> and 4(b)<sup>341</sup> of the Full Employment Act of 1946) which the estimates, amounts, and levels (as described in section 301(a)<sup>342</sup>) set forth in such resolution are designed to achieve, shall it be in order to offer to such resolution an amendment relating to such goals, and such amendment shall be in order only if it also proposes to alter such estimates, amounts, and levels in germane fashion in order to be consistent with the goals proposed in such amendment.

§ 305(a)(5) (5) Consideration of any concurrent resolution on the budget by the House of Representatives shall be in the Committee of the Whole, and the resolution shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule in accordance with the applicable provisions of rule XXIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives. After the Committee rises and reports the resolution back to the
