19. Repeal of title VI of the Congressional Budget Act (Budget Agreement Enforcement Provisions)

HOUSE BILL (SECTION 11116)

The House bill repeals title VI, which provided changes in Congressional budget procedures that were expected to last only for the duration of previous budget agreements. Title VI temporarily extended the coverage and enforcement of budget resolutions from three to five fiscal years. It also provided for adjustments in the budget resolution for such factors as emergencies, estimating differences, and tax compliance.

The five-year scope of the resolution is permanently extended in sections 11105 and 11106. The new adjustments are set forth in section 11113. The House bill repeals an unused provision in section 604 of the Budget Act, which provided the House Budget Committee with the authority to report a reconciliation directive providing for tax increases to offset legislation cutting taxes.

SENATE AMENDMENT (SECTION 1613)

The language in the Senate Amendment is identical to the House Bill.

CONFERENCE AGREEMENT (SECTION 10118)

The Senate recesses to the House.
