COUNSEL NOTES

Section 10121 (BEA 1997) amended the Line Item Veto Act of 1996, which comprised Part C of Title X of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974. Under section 5 of the Line Item Act, which added Part C to Title X, the Act has expired:

Effective and Termination Dates

Pub. L. 104–130, §5, Apr. 9, 1996, 110 Stat. 1212, provided that: “This Act [the Line Item Veto Act] and the amendments made by it shall take effect and apply to measures enacted on the earlier of—

“(1) the day after the enactment into law, pursuant to Article I, section 7, of the Constitution of the United States, of an Act entitled ‘An Act to provide for a seven-year plan for deficit reduction and achieve a balanced Federal budget.’; or

“(2) January 1, 1997; and shall have no force or effect on or after January 1, 2005.”

Short Title of the Line Item Veto Act

The “Line Item Veto Act” is the short title of Pub. L. 104–130, §5, Apr. 9, 1996, 110 Stat. 1212, which added Part C to Title X of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974. This “Part C” of the title has the short title of the “Line Item Veto Act of 1996”. Hence the Public Law has a slightly different short title than the Part it added to existing law.
